

Barrenjoey House Palm Beach unveils accommodation offering as part of heritage re-design

Media Release: 1st March 2019

The Boathouse Group's latest venture, Barrenjoey House in Palm Beach, opened its accommodation offering on Tuesday, 26th February.

The accommodation includes seven guest-house style rooms located on the upper levels of the heritage listed building. Like the recently opened restaurant, the accommodation has undergone a renovation and has had significant interior design improvements made.

Light filled guest rooms and shared areas are styled with beach house inspired pieces, including custom shell mirrors, patterned lampshades and coral. Artworks by local artists feature throughout the restaurant and accommodation.

"Upstairs has a bright and open feel, featuring welcoming interiors and landscaped gardens that we hope will create a relaxing Palm Beach getaway for couples or groups", said Pip Goldsmith, Creative Director of The Boathouse Group.

Guests can wander downstairs for lunch or dinner, or choose to eat and drink at nearby Boathouse venues, including The Boathouse Hotel Patonga located across the water by ferry. The Boathouse Home store in Palm Beach retails many of the interior pieces featured at Barrenjoey House, including custom homewares.

"Whether staying overnight or for a long weekend, the location offers something for everyone. Barrenjoey House is unique as it is the only guest house in Palm Beach, offering an idyllic base for tourists, or an escape for locals who want to dine and stay in the one spot", said Andrew Goldsmith, owner of The Boathouse Group.

Pittwater view or courtyard view rooms are available, each with an ensuite. The shared lounge and outdoor courtyard are exclusive to accommodation guests, offering relaxing areas to unwind after lunch downstairs or a swim across the road.

The restaurant offers table service, with a lunch and dinner menu that focuses on fresh local produce and seafood. The relaxed yet sophisticated dining experience is what Barrenjoey House has long been known for, welcoming guests to pop in for a quick meal or to visit for a special occasion.

About The Boathouse

The Boathouse is a group of unique and iconic hospitality venues located at beautiful waterside locations in Sydney, Australia.

The Boathouse, established in 2008 by Pip and Andrew Goldsmith, began with our Palm Beach, Sydney café.

The Group has expanded to now consist of 8 venues, and is operated by Heath Bambridge, one of the earliest members of the Boathouse team. We have an outstanding team of over 500 people who help make the venues what they are today.

We have always aimed to create experiences people love. We do this through high quality products and ingredients as well as through service that is both genuine and fun. We firmly believe in contributing to the local community in a positive way as we try and provide a classic Australian beachside experience.

The most recent additions to the group are: The Boathouse Hotel Patonga

This is our first venue on the Central Coast located in a picturesque fishing village. We have combined our simple Boathouse style with an already iconic Australian Hotel location.

Barrenjoey House

A heritage listed restaurant and guest-house located in Palm Beach. We look forward to operating this historic venue and maintaining the relaxed, yet sophisticated experience Barrenjoey House is known for.

The Boathouse Home and Bakery

This Palm Beach store is a collection of interiors and homeware items, inspired by our venues, and includes an interior design service. This store is also home to our Group bakery offering a selection of bread, cakes and pastries and of course a small takeaway café offering.
